Re: Claim No. 4748
Amount: $21,962.23

RESPONSE TO LIQUIDATING TRUST'S NINETEENTH OMNIBUS OBJECTION

The Claimant, Brian L. LaCoursiere ("LaCoursiere"), for his Response to the Objection states as follows:

1. He has read the Liquidating Trust's Nineteenth Omnibus Objection and states as to his twenty-one thousand nine hundred sixty-two dollars and twenty-three cents ($21,962.23) claim. The claim is based upon promised severance pay which constitute wages due from the Debtor. The Debtor asserts that its books do not reflect any amounts owing. Its books are simply wrong. This full amount is owed. Claimant complied until the operations of the Debtor closed down was not paid his severance pay of twenty-one thousand nine hundred sixty-two dollars and twenty-three cents ($21,962.23).

2. Under Exhibit "G" this claim is denied based on the bald assertion that the Debtor's books and records do not reflect any amount owing. I know that I was entitled to this severance pay promised by the Debtor as previously explained and documented in my claim. I have not been paid this amount. This claim does not duplicate that articulated in Claim No. 4756 as is stated in another pleading by the Liquidating Trust. (Seventh Omnibus Objection)

3. The statements made herein are made by Brian L. LaCoursiere, 4347 Kings Church Road, Taylorsville, Kentucky 40071-7907 based on his personal knowledge of the relevant facts that support this response. These statements should also be supplemented by the matters set forth in the Claim originally filed.

4. Any relevant document was submitted with the Claim previously.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined this Response and to the best of my knowledge and belief, the statements contained therein are true, correct and complete.
